AMENDMENT #1

That motion 19-G-168 of Section "C" of the Second General Committee Report dated May 27, 2019 concerning the Proposed Supervised Consumption Site Location - 90 Mulcaster Street be amended:

By deleting the following words "that the applicant" and replacing them with "That should the Supervised Consumption Site be approved for funding, the Canadian Mental Health Association (CMHA)", and to add "for the properties at 88 and 90 Mulcaster Street" after the words "(or a Scoped Site Plan);

and by adding the following paragraphs:

2. That Mayor, Jeff Lehman be included on the hiring committee for the Barrie Safe Consumption Site - Site Manager.
3. That once the Supervised Consumption Site has been open for three months, staff in the Planning and Building Services Department report back to General Committee concerning the status of the conditions of Site Plan being met and continue to report back every three months after that for the first year.
4. That the City reconfirm its support for the Supervised Consumption Site on an annual basis based on Site Plan conditions being met.

That motion 19-G-168 of Section "C" of the Second General Committee Report dated May 27, 2019 concerning the Proposed Supervised Consumption Site Location - 90 Mulcaster Street be amended:

1. That the decision concerning a Supervised Consumption Site be deferred so that a Third Party Impartial Investigator(s) can be retained to conduct an investigation of the City of Barrie's First Safe Consumption Site, including the benefits and impacts experienced by other Canadian and Ontario municipalities who have Supervised Consumption Sites, the application from the Gilbert Centre and Canadian mental Health Association's application(s) to ensure the application(s) is complete and accurate, the administration staff who will be overseeing the Supervised Consumption Site and a location that they believe would be best suited for a Supervised Consumption Site in Barrie and report their findings back to General Committee for their input at the end of October, 2019.
2. That $50,000 be allocated from Council Strategic Priorities Reserve for the cost of the Investigator.
