

Economic & Creative Development

2020-21 Focus

For any community to flourish, its residents must have:

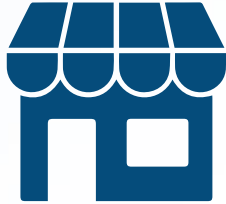

- Employment opportunities
- A government that can generate revenue to provide services

Economic development, if done effectively, works to retain and grow jobs and investment within a community, contributing to an overall positive quality of life.

In November 2019, the City of Barrie reorganized its operational divisions to bring together Business Development + Creative Development to create one department:

Economic & Creative Development (ECD)

What is Economic & Creative Development?

Businesses need

- Access to land, skilled labour, capital and utilities
- Networks and connections that increase competitiveness

Workers need

- Quality jobs
- Education and training
- Opportunities for advancement

Communities need

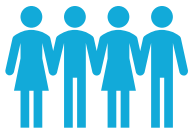

- Funding for basic services
- Quality of life amenities
- Economic diversification and resilience
