CNIB 100TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATIONS

L. Ricardo advised that the Canadian National Institution of the Blind (CNIB) celebrated its 100th Anniversary on March 31, 2017.

Ms. Ricardo provided details associated with the history of the establishment of the CNIB. She commented that the CNIB is the primary supplier of vision support through its provision of programs, and advocating for those who live with sight loss.

Members of the Committee asked questions and received responses from Ms. Ricardo.
