PRESENTATION CONCERNING THE POPULATION AND EMPLOYMENT TRENDS: CHANGING THE CONVERSATION ABOUT INTENSIFICATION

Ms. Andrea Bourrie, Director of Planning and Building Services provided a presentation concerning the Employment Trends and Changing the Conversation about Intensification.

Ms. Bourrie discussed slides concerning the following topics:

- The City of Barrie projected population of people and jobs between 2017 and 2041;
- The City's policy context associated with the changes in the Provincial Growth Plan and affect the City's approach to growth and development;
- Maps illustrating the City's designated growth areas, the phasing of growth between 2022 and 2041 and the growth projections from the 2016 census and for 2031 and 2041;
- The growth plan conformity associated with the 2017 Growth Plan targets;
- The challenges faced by the municipality related to growth management;
- Potential solutions to attempt to meet Growth Plan targets;
- An illustration of the intensification areas;
- A map of the Essa Road Corridor Study Area; and
- Pictures depicting the existing and the future vision for the Essa Road Corridor.

In closing, Ms. Bourrie advised that progress has been made with intensification in the municipality but that full development is not being achieved in key areas. She commented that the 2017 Growth Plan targets have been challenging for the municipality to achieve in the Urban Growth Centre and Nodes and Corridors. Ms. Bourrie suggested that by changing the conversation about intensification to bring stakeholders together could further assist Council to make more informed decisions. Ms. Bourrie advised that the creation of a new Official Plan would provide additional opportunities for the municipality to pursue a Made in Barrie approach with the Province.

Members of the Committee asked a number of questions related to the information provided and received responses from City staff and Mr. Cook.

This matter was recommended (Section "B") to City Council for consideration of receipt at its meeting to be held on 2/12/2018.
