RE: Weeknight Parking Fees

Dear Barrie City Council,

We are writing to express our concern with the proposed addition of weeknight parking fees for downtown Barrie.

We represent three of Barrie's largest arts organizations, the Barrie Film Festival, Talk is Free Theatre and Theatre by the Bay. Each year, our three organizations collectively program hundreds of films, concerts, comedy events and theatre productions in downtown Barrie at the Mady Centre for the Performing Arts, the MacLaren Art Centre, Heritage Park and the Uptown Theatre.

We strongly believe that the implementation of this fee will negatively impact our events, discouraging patrons from attending events downtown. The policy would particularly affect events timed in the mid-to-late afternoon, whose audiences primarily consist of senior citizens. Any event going past 5 pm would effectively double the cost of parking for attendees.

While we understand the need of the City to increase parking revenues, we advise them to carefully consider the impact that this fee will have on our organizations and, most importantly, our efforts to draw citizens to our downtown.

Regards,

Claudine Benoit, Director, Barrie Film Festival

Alex Dault, Artistic Director, Theatre by the Bay

Arkady Spivak, Artistic Director, Talk Is Free Theatre
