FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Bill Gosling Outsourcing moving to downtown Barrie

(Barrie, ON) – During his final public presentation at this morning's Barrie Business Progress Breakfast, Mayor Jeff Lehman announced that Bill Gosling Outsourcing will be moving its head office and production centre to downtown Barrie.

Bill Gosling provides outsourcing services designed to support companies with their customer service experiences, from customer care and acquisition to accounts receivable and integrating technology across a variety of platforms.

This global organization employs 900 staff from their head office location that will soon be based out of Lakeview Corporate Centre at 90 Collier Street, occupying two floors and accommodating up to 240 in-office employees at any time while the rest will be working hybrid. The organization also supports a positive employee experience including a yoga room, onsite gym, games room and massage services.

"When large organizations like Bill Gosling Outsourcing make the decision to invest in Barrie, it is a reflection of the business support network and the unique lifestyle available here," says Stephannie Schlichter, Director of Economic and Creative Development at the City of Barrie. "Barrie is a premiere investment destination and we are excited to welcome Bill Gosling Outsourcing and their team."

"I brought up a few of our management leadership team members and we went to Lakeview, walked around Dunlop and it was unanimous," commented Dave Rae, CEO of Bill Gosling Outsourcing. "We're really looking forward to being part of Barrie."
