Title:	PRESENTATION BY REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ART AND WATER GROUP CONCERNING ART AND WATER A PERFECT PAIR

Mat Slaman, Executive Director of the Art and Water Group provided a presentation concerning the Art and Water Group and expanding its program, the Art and Water a Perfect Pair, to the City of Barrie.

Mr. Slaman discussed slides concerning the following topics:

- An overview of the Group that combines children’s theatre, dockside performances, art galleries, and ancillary boat tours;
- The Art and Water Group structure;
- A summary of the flagship program, immersive children’s theatre that takes place aboard a pirate ship for families to join their crew and search for buried treasure;
- A summary of the dockside public performances and muskoka chair murals programs;
- Future programs for the Art and Water Group;
- The support and funding sources for the Group; and
- The request to the City of Barrie for space along the waterfront and the impacts of their programs to the Community.

Members of Council asked a number of questions to Mr. Slaman and received responses.
