Title: PRESENTATION - UPDATE CONCERNING COMMUNITY IMPROVEMENT PLANS.

Kathy Brislin, Senior Policy Planner, City of Barrie provided a presentation to City Council concerning an update regarding the Community Improvement Plans. Ms. Brislin outlined the background regarding the existing Community Improvement Plans (CIP) and described a number of major projects that have occurred in the Downtown Community Improvement Area. She described other small projects in the downtown area including a number off of Dunlop Street that have been a result of the CIP. Ms. Brislin provided examples of projects in the Allandale Community Improvement Area and outlined information concerning a couple of proposed plans in the Georgian College Community Improvement Plan area. Ms. Brislin identified the amount of funding that has been loaned through the CIPs and the total dollar amount that has been granted. She provided an analysis of the grants and summarized the loans provided to date. She concluded by explaining the benefits that the 25 approved applications between 2005 and 2010 have created.

Members of City Council asked a number of questions concerning the information provided in the presentation.
