Title:	Russell Atkinson, Principal of Barrie Central Collegiate Institute recognized City Council on behalf of the students, parents and school community for their support for Central remaining open. Mr. Atkinson explained that an Accommodation Review Committee (ARC) was established in 2010 to evaluate Barrie Central and four other secondary schools within the area. He noted that the Simcoe County School Board decided to keep the school open and directed staff to pursue viable financial partnerships including partnerships with private sector organizations until September 30, 2014. Mr. Atkinson thanked Mayor Lehman and members of City Council for their leadership and commented that he is looking forward to working with Council in finding future partnerships.
