Title: UNITED WAY GREATER SIMCOE COUNTY

Elizabeth Bufton, City of Barrie Employee Campaign Coordinator provided a presentation concerning the 2011 Greater Simcoe County United Way Campaign. She listed a number of organizations that rely on funding provided by the United Way and stated that the 2011 campaign goal is $1.75 million. Ms. Bufton noted that the goal for the City of Barrie employees to contribute is $35,000 and thanked City Council and the Chief Administrative Officer for the ability to volunteer her time towards the campaign.

Alison Pickard, Chief Executive Officer of the United Way Greater Simcoe County thanked City Council on behalf of the Board of Directors for the opportunity to address Council concerning the 2011 Campaign. She noted that the United Way is the number one non-government source of funding for many non-profit organizations within the community and stated that she believes that the money donated to the various organizations provides fundamental changes in the community.

Members of City Council asked several questions related to the 2011 Greater Simcoe County United Way Campaign.
